

After the storm, always comes the calm. I wanted to take the time to let you know how much I appreciate your thoughts and support during the tumultuous times we experienced. Your donation to Officer McKeithen's family was very generous, I know it made a positive impact during an incomprehensible time in our lives. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Chief John B. Miller

*The men and women of the Biloxi Police Department appreciate and are grateful for the expressions of condolences regarding the death of Officer Robert McKeithen.
The outpouring of support from citizens and law enforcement from around the corner to across the nation has provided great comfort to his fellow officers, family and our community.
Thank you for your thoughts, prayers and sympathy during this difficult time.*
