Dear Mr. Willis:

Thank you very much for your recent donation to the CCSU Foundation, Inc. We encourage prospective students to "See Yourself at CCSU," and your thoughtful memorial contribution will make it possible for more students to envision a future at the University and beyond.

Your gift ensures our students leave CCSU not only with an unparalleled education but also a deeper appreciation for philanthropy and the importance of community engagement.

We are proud of our students. As they graduate and assume integral roles in our economy and community, we hope you will take pride in their work, too, knowing that your gift helped set them on the road to leadership.

We will make every effort to notify the family of your generosity. On behalf of our students and the Central community, thank you again.

Sincerely,
