

The Fairmont Police Department would like to express our sincere thanks to the USDA along with its partners in assisting small departments such as ours with outfitting our officers with the equipment needed to provide a safe and professional environment to serve the citizens of our town. You have a great organization, and we look forward to partnering with you in the future.

Chief J Edwards
Fairmont Police Department