

The Iota Police Department would like to send a thank you for the purchase of vests for our officers. In today's world law enforcement is becoming more and more dangerous. We are a small department with a limited budget that has been cut even more. With the vests that we have received Officers with Iota Police Department will continue to preserve the peace and uphold the law knowing they have a layer of protection so they may make it home.