

Hello This is the Juniata County Sheriff's Office located in Juniata County Pennsylvania. We received a package containing handcuff keys, combat gauze and my favorite thank you letters from numerous individuals in our support.

I am the Sheriff of Juniata County, a used to be sleepy county near the heart of central Pennsylvania. I wanted to reach out and communicate my sincere thankfulness for your support and I am glad that there are people and organizations such as yourself that are taking the initiative to precipitate change. Thank you for all you do.
